

In 2013 the Education Committee of the Rhodesian Ridgeback Club of the US (RRCUS) created Rhodesian Ridgeback BOOT CAMP, a day committed to bringing you a wealth of knowledge and experience. The Bay Area Rhodesian Ridgeback Club (BARRC) is delighted to announce it is hosting this special event in November.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, November 16th, 2019 at Sycamore Lane Kennels in Lodi (the same locale as the BARRC Annual Holiday Party).

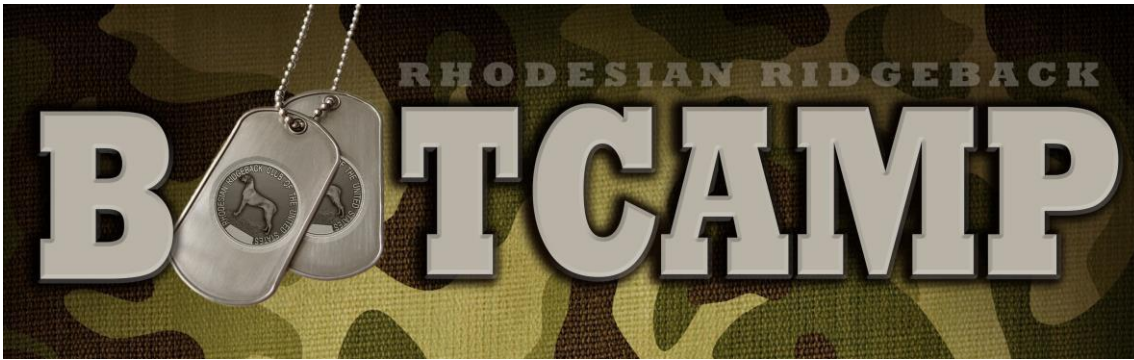

We have an outstanding lineup of presenters in Barbara G Rupert, Oakhurst Rhodesian Ridgebacks, Danielle Sand, VMD and Susan Ralston, VMD, all long time RRCUS members, former RRCUS Board members as well as on the Education Committee that created this program. You can expect a full day of education, evaluation and participation. There will be Breed Standard and Elaboration, Anatomy and Structure, Movement and Handling.

BOOT CAMP is LIMITED TO 30 STUDENTS AND 20 DOGS. Based on our recent survey, we anticipate that this event will fill up quickly. This program is for you if you:

- are new to the breed and desire to learn more
- are a current or future RR breeder
- are interested in RR conformation or performance activities
- are a RR performance competitor (lure coursing, tracking, obedience, agility, etc)
- are a member of BARRC and/or RRCUS
- want to meet people who love their RRs as much as you do
- want to network
- want to spend time with a bunch of beautiful RRs
- want to spend an educational and fun day out with your RR

Make sure you have a slot and register early!! Cost of the program is $30 for BARRC or RRCUS members without a dog, $35 with a dog and $45 for non-members.

If you would like to bring a dog be sure and check the box on the registration form. We will accept a maximum of 20 Demo Ridgebacks, and only one dog per person. BARRC members will be given first preference.
